

Expression of Interest: 2019 Open Call

This form serves to collect all information required for the Expression of Interest (EOI) to participate in the End Violence Fund. All submissions must be made in English. Submissions to this EOI will be reviewed on a regular basis. Shortlisted applicants will be notified within three months after submission. Only shortlisted applicants will be contacted and thereafter included in the next Request for Proposals.

Please ensure that all the critical information regarding your EOI is included in this form. Any links you provide will be regarded as supporting documents and may not be studied in detail. End Violence may review external links and record the content of those links with day and hour stamp upon submission. End Violence reserves the right not to consider any changes made to the content of these links after the submission date of the EOI.

If not eligible:

The End Violence Fund seeks expression of interest only to entities that are eligible. Only entities that fulfill the below mandatory requirements will be considered eligible.

- Legally registered entity, either as non-profit or private company
- The tech solution addresses one or more of the four objectives of the 2019 Open Call
- Your organisation has a safeguarding policy in place (including data privacy) or is willing to develop a policy *
- The proposed solution responds to a clear need or gap, does not duplicate existing tools, and builds upon and/or interacts with existing solutions
- At minimum, an existing prototype of the open-source solution with promising results from initial pilots

\ The Partnership is committed to supporting organisations to improve their safeguarding capacity and practice. As part of this, we ask all grantees to complete the Grantee Self-assessment, which can be found on the materials sidebar. While this is not required as part of your expression of interest, please note all shortlisted organisations and companies will be expected to complete this as part of the proposal.*
